Resolution:

After being discussed and considered in the Legislative and Parliamentary Affairs Department and having taken into consideration the recommendation of Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D), Ministry of Home Affairs, New Delhi, the Government has issued the Gujarat Prisons Classification Rules,2011 vide different notifications which are referred in the preamble above at serial no.1,2,3 and has classified the jails/prisons on the basis of capacity to lodge the prisoners and kind of prisoners in the prisons as Central Prison, District Prison, Sub-Prison, Special Prison, Open Prison, women prison and Taluka prison. In view of the said Gujarat Prisons Classification Rules, 2011, the Government has also issued various orders for classifications of prison and prisoners from time to time as mentioned in the preamble above at serial no.4,5,6. The Government has issued instructions General Administration Department's vide letter No.૧૩૫/102015/877(3)/ARTD-II, Dtd. 6th July, 2015 to issue co-ordinated/consolidated orders in respect of Government policies covering all additions/deletions/modifications. The Government is, accordingly pleased to issue consolidated orders in respect of classification of prison and prisoners as per Appendix-I appended herewith as covering additions/deletions/modifications issued so far under orders mentioned in the preamble above at serial No.4,5,6.

Accordingly, the prisoners shall be kept in the Central Prison, District Prison, Sub-Prison, Special Prison, Open Prison, Women Prison and Taluka Prison as per the classification of Prisons and Prisoners as specified at Appendix-I appended herewith. However, as per the provision of Section 29(1) and (2) of Prisoners Act, 1900, the State Government and/or the Inspector General of Prisons by general or special order remove any prisoner confined in a Prison from one category/name of Prison to any other category/name of Prison in the state as classified at Appendix-I appended herewith.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Gujarat.
